How Is a Claim Pay-Out Calculated?

The way we determine the value of items is we multiple the weight of the item times $1.00 per pound. This gives us the amount we pay for compensation for any damaged items covered by this coverage during your move.

Example: Bedframe weights 250lbs. We multiple the weight of the bed (250lbs x $1) = $250.00 will be paid in this case. Once a value of the damaged item has been determined you will receive compensation after the original invoice for your move has been paid in full.
